

Hunt Deltel donates new ambulance to the Department of Health

Hunt Deltel and Co. Ltd has donated a new ambulance to the Department of Health. The representative of the company Captain Edmond Hoareau presented the ambulance worth 25,000 dollars to the outgoing health Principal Secretary Mr. Maurice Loustau Lalanne in a small ceremony on Thursday afternoon at the Victoria Hospital.

Present at the ceremony were the Minister for Health and Social Services and other high representatives of both the health department and the Hunt Deltel company.

Captain Hoareau explained that as the agent for Ford in Seychelles and as a result of good sales records, Hunt Deltel felt it was proper to give back to the community some of the profits.

After accepting the donation, Mr. Loustau Lalanne thanked Captain Edmond for the ambulance, which he said, would help to improve the ambulance service on Mahe especially for residents living along secondary roads.
